

Oregon Association Chiefs of Police Corporate Circle Program

The Corporate Circle Program is the ideal vehicle to market your organization to OACP's member base. This partnership provides your organization with a presence throughout the year and a searchable listing within our Marketplace database, advertising, a presence at the Annual OACP Conference and much more. As a Corporate Circle member, you will show the broader law enforcement community in the state of Oregon that you are a trusted resource while developing new relationships that will last for years to come.

The following is an outline of benefits available to OACP's Corporate Circle Members.

PROGRAM BENEFITS

- 12-month listing within the new on-line OACP Marketplace with your company's logo and a hyperlink to your company's website.
- Corporate Circle member information to be provided in all OACP new member packets.
- Right to use and display the OACP Corporate Circle logo within your communications and promotions
- Inclusion in monthly email blasts to all OACP members announcing new corporate members and special offers.
- Mailing list of OACP members
- 2 weeks of advertising on OACP's Weekly News Brief.
- Presence at the Annual OACP Conference including:
 - Premier Registration (2 weeks prior to Open Registration)
 - Invitation to attend one dinner or reception of your choice
 - Premiere listing within the conference program recognizing your organization as a Corporate Circle Member
 - Special signage on Conference Trade Show booth promoting your organization as a Corporate Circle Member

A Corporate Circle Membership with OACP ensures that your company's name and presence is in front of Oregon's law enforcement leaders and on our website on the Corporate Circle page.

CORPORATE CIRCLE MEMBERSHIP INVESTMENT: $5000/year
(this amount is flexible depending on your companies needs)
